

Important Documents

Having access to important documents can make recovery time after a disaster easier to manage.

Make a Plan. Make a Difference.

Depending on your situation, you may need some or all of the following documents to file insurance claims, pay bills, take care of injured family members, or manage the responsibilities associated with a death. Here are suggested documents that you should locate, copy and store in a safe place (fire proof box, or with an out of town friend or relative).
